

Thomas Downey High School

RENAISSANCE EDUCATION FOUNDATION

TDHS Parent and Alumni Pledge to Excellence

Renaissance Education Foundation is a partnership between Thomas Downey High School and the community to promote improvement, attendance and academic excellence. The goal is to improve student performance at all levels. The at-risk student who stays in school, the failing student who raises his or her grades, the underachiever, or the B student who strives for A's, all receive an incentive to do better in school. Renaissance rewards improvement, effort and individual responsibility.

How Does It Work?

Students who reach certain grade point average goals, improve their GPA by .5, or have perfect attendance each quarter receive a Renaissance card that gives them privileges like:

- Renaissance assemblies and special events
- Downey spirit items
- Discounts and free coupons from local merchants
- Academic Block Letters and Patches

What Can You Do To Help?

Renaissance Education Foundation needs help in the form of financial support. Your "Pledge to Excellence" in any amount will help provide the incentives that help us achieve the high academic standards Downey is known for. Please consider joining other parents, alumni, and community members in submitting a pledge in your name or that of a family member or business. If you are interested in a business partnership with Renaissance, please contact us for ways you can help provide incentives by calling the Student Center, (209) 576-4219, contact: Amy Mendez, President- diepmendez@gmail.com , or Andrea Bettencourt, Co-Pres- andrea@bettencourtcpa.com

Please complete and return the portion below to enter your "Pledge to Excellence".
